

Begin by clicking on the "Join for FREE" brown/burgundy horizontal button circled below

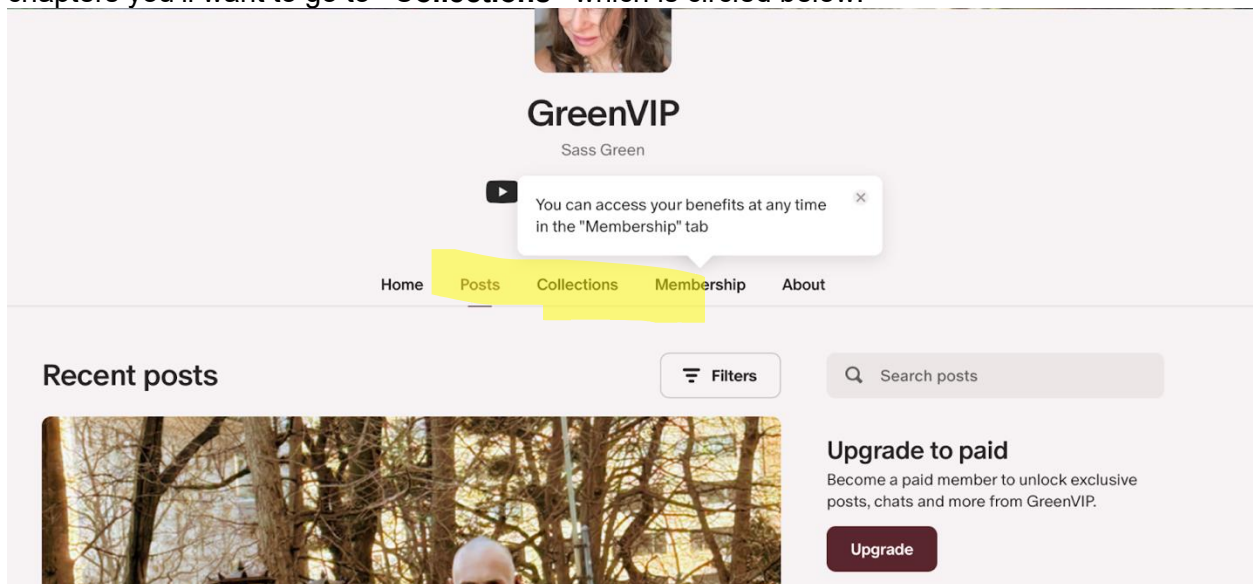

Once you click, you will be asked to fill in your email and choose a password.

You will then find yourself looking at the screen below - Patreon has designed the site so it "makes folks" think they must pay ... but look where I circled on the upper right ... it says "Skip for Now" in small letters. Click it.

Once you click “skip for now” you will see this page. Play around if you like, but to read the chapters you’ll want to go to “Collections” which is circled below.

Then after you click “Collections” you can choose what you want to read. The forthcoming book is called “Billionaire’s Naughty Romance.” You can see it circled below

Once you see it, you can read the chapters. Once the book is published I must take it down per Amazon's TOC.

Yet I'll try to put up more bonus content.
